

Definition: Supplier

Suppliers are companies which perform a process on their internally manufactured products (captive) or which perform a process as a service to others (non-captive); they are companies that are or would be accredited by Nadcap. Suppliers are encouraged to participate by furnishing technical information and expertise, attending meetings, answering questionnaires, and assisting in the development of audit criteria.

 NadcapSM
Administered by PRI